The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly met in regular session yester-day afternoon, with President Tighe in the chair. A communication from the pork

It was itedded that a notice of all boycotted firms be published in the papers. The following communication was received from the street railway company in answer do a request made by the assembly for reduced fares for workingmen going to and from their places of employment:

To Messra. Tighe, Grogan, Robertson, Illiey and Bodley, Committee of Trades and Labor Assembly.

GENTLEMEN:—The board of directors of the Wheeling Railway Company has garefully considered your request for reduced rates of fare to working people when on their way to and from work. We regret that you were unable to comply with our request for a clear designation of those who should be considered working people on their way to and from work. The difficulty in making such distinctions among passengers on a street railway is such that you must yourselves have realized it. There are clerks and such as a street railway is such that you must yourselves have realized it. There are clerks and such should be made against a heart instance of the road, but we are unable to see that it could be denied equal privileges with others. It would be an agreeable thing to be able to give special reductions in fares to sil of the good friends and patrons of the road, but we are unable to see that it could be denied equal privileges with others. stated that the expulsion of Delegate W. J. Bodley from the assembly was illigal. President Tighe left the chair and addressed the assembly. He claimed, without any personal feeling in the matter, that Delegate Bodley had betrayed his trust.

Some difficulty was experienced in reopening the case, many motions and amendments being put and declared out of order. After much general discussion on the report of the committee, it was decided that Delegate Bodley be notified to appear at the next regular meeting to show cause why he should not be expelied from the assembly. ed from the assembly.

The legislative committees of West Virginia and Ohio had no reports to make. The finance committee's report was presented by Delegate Grogan, and accepted. The report showed a balance of $743.72 in favor of the assembly.

Under the head of communications, one from the bricklayers' union, sanctioning W. J. Bodiey as its delegate, was received und filed. The assembly adjourned at 5:20 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS.

When Clay Clement first appeared here last season he was unknown, and those who went to see him act were filled with uncertainty and perhaps with an inclination to sharply criticise this new star. The unmistakable success he achieved and the delightful impression of his art is still commented upon by these theatre goers who witnessed the first appearance. When Mr. Clement plays his return engagement at the Opera House next Thursday, October 28, his reception will be a condiatone, for he is no longer a stranger to Wheeling theatre goers, but an artist who has won a high place in their estimation and whose actual visit to this city is an event that all lovers of drama will look forward to. ma will look forward to.

"My Uncle from New York" is a re-"My Uncle from New York" is a re-freshing and gratifying departure from the stereotyped style of farce comedy. It is a most uproariously merry enter-tainment with a highly amusing plot, and the fun evolved by this excellent company is pure and wholesome, and when the curtain finally falls, jolly, pleasant memories will always cluster around the dear old chapple. Harry around the dear old chapple. Harry Montague, as "My Uncle," gives a most artistic impersonation, and he is surrounded by a bevy of pretty and talcated women and elever comedians, who interpret this charming comedy in a faultless manner. It has been immensely successful wherever presented, it will be seen in the Opera House here to-morrow and Wednesday evenings.

To-night, one of the best melo-dra-mas on the road will begin a three nights' engagement at the Grand Opera House, and no doubt a crowded house will see it. "The Brand of Cain" had a remarkable run in New York and was the recipient of praise by the press of the metropolis. The company is said to be a fine one.
